THE VICTORIOUS COW .- A wild gow created considerable excitement at the fact of King street, last evening. She broke away from her awner, who was trying to drive her late the Potomas Ferry Company's enclosure, and made an attempt to enter l'etty's restaurant, but was driven oil by the employees. The cow, which was evidently at a b balous nature, then took a the line seroes the street and boiled into the duing room of Schweider's restaurant, and not finding anything to said her there, continue her course to the bar subta. In that room were two gallian or Confed rates who were recounting their many hardships and eribulations during "the times that their men's scale." The cow made a sudden break hear them, head down, and they immediately "went back" on their war record and insteriously fled. The more agile of the two mannered into a high window, while his companies, who suffers from weak ankles, was only able to reach a tall steel.— Meanwhile the furtesiler drave off the animal with a broom, and after paying her respects to the pisce she went peacenby out of doors. The "gallant captains that they are" then descend ed from their perches, and are very wrothy to day when anybody says "com" to them.

Business prospects throughout the country are reported by our northern exchanges as encouraging, and the cituation is regarded as better than at any time since the panic of 1873. The dored, for disorderly conduct, were fined and demand for all kinds of produce from fereign countries is such as to insure a good market for all the surplus stock, which is unusually large, and the money thus brought into the country must necessarily benefit all classes. Hereabouts there is beginning to be a slightly better feeling, and hopes are now confidently entertained of a larger fall trade than for some years past. The many good traits. The remains were interred receipts of grain continue large, and notwithstanding the tremendous receipts of wheat from the west, prices are pretty well sustained. In money matters there is little or no change to note, all legitimate business demands being ed that navigation will be suspended for about ten days or two weeks. Meanwhile boats for this city debt has nearly been accomplished, this city will come via Ruck Creek or the out. and new lacks only about $1000 of bonds to complete it, most of which are held by our own citizens, who not only stand in their own light, but thwart the aim of the citizens generally in relieving the corporation and enhancing every interest in the community by not coming forward.

The Baltimore papers report the money market there as working smooth and easy, without strain or pressure in any direction. Borrowers in good credit, or having accepted collateral, can obtain all the funds they require on the basis of 4s5 per cent for the best business. The offerings at the bank are moderate, but the institutions, though ready to extend their lines on first-class fact more so than at any time for a week or two paper, are not urgent in their efforts to make now husiness

For the benefit of those owning or being in possession of DOG or DOGS, I publish the cor-poration ordinance relative to the same, which law will be rigidly enforced after Monday next, the 25th day of August, 1879, and the amount of the fine, five dollars, ($5) will be assessed upon every one, without exception:

Chapter XX VII, sec. 1, page 123, Corporation laws. "It shall be the duty of the Mayor on the first day of May in every year to give public notice for thirty days that all persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species to come forward and take out a liexpiration of the time in said notice mentioned, all persons found with a dog or dogs, or harporing one or more dogs on his, her or their premises without the required license shall be fined by the Mayor five dollars for every dog so owned or barbored, and one dollar of said fine shall be paid to the officer making the complaint, and in case of the refusal or omission to pay said fine, the Mayor may commit the offender to the work house for not less than ten nor more than ninety days." COURTLAND H. SMITH, sug 19-5t Mayo

NOTICE.

I hereby call the attention of all parties interested to the ordinance below quoted:
"Chapter XXIV, section 4. All boats or other Bargains! vessels having melons on board for sale, or to be offered for sale within the city, shall lie at the corporation wharf, on Point West, and at no other place, for the purpose of unloading, under a penalty not exceeding two dollars for each hour she shall remain at any other place: pro-vided, that melons intended for sale in the marwided, that meions intended for sale in the mar-ket space, during market hours, and by the pro-ducers thereof, may be landed at any other wharf; and it shall be the duty of the Superin-tendent of Police, the policemen and any member of the Board of Health to have this provision carried into effect."

COURTLAND II. SMITH. aug 18 Mayor.

NOTICE.

In view of the large amount of money due for rents by persons occupying stands and benches in the public market, notice is hereby given that all parties indebted to the City Council for market rents are required to pay the same or give approved security for payment within the next 20 days.

Persons failing to do so will be required to Persons failing to do so will be required to vacste their stands and benches.

By order of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.
